What Would Be More Exciting?

Fajriatun Nurhidayati and Reni Armanita

It's still raining.
Tiwi can't play outside.

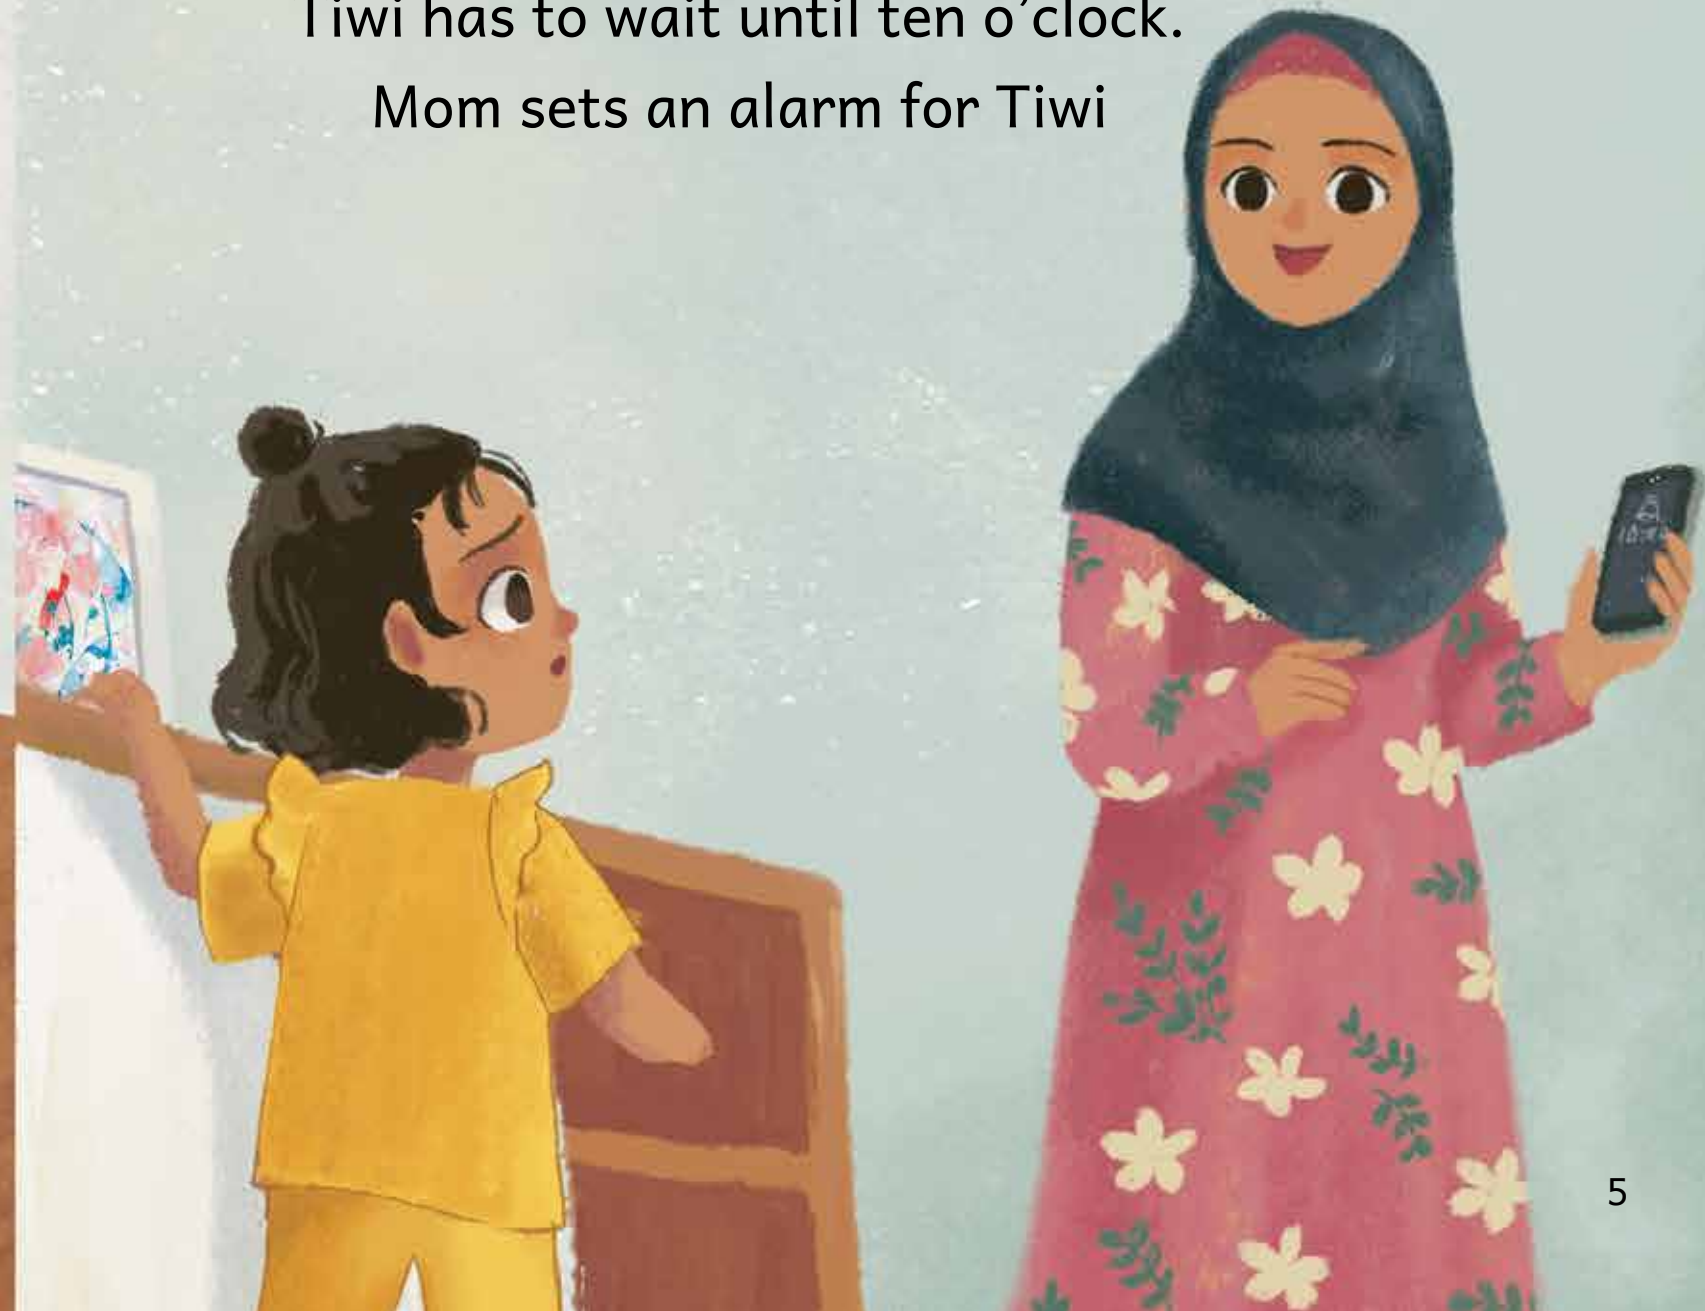

What will Tiwi do?
Will Tiwi take a nap like Moci?
But, it's too early.

Tiwi can borrow mom's mobile phone.
She wants to continue playing the game Great Harvest.

Too bad. Mom won't allow it.
It's not Tiwi's turn to use the phone.
Tiwi has to wait until ten o'clock.
Mom sets an alarm for Tiwi

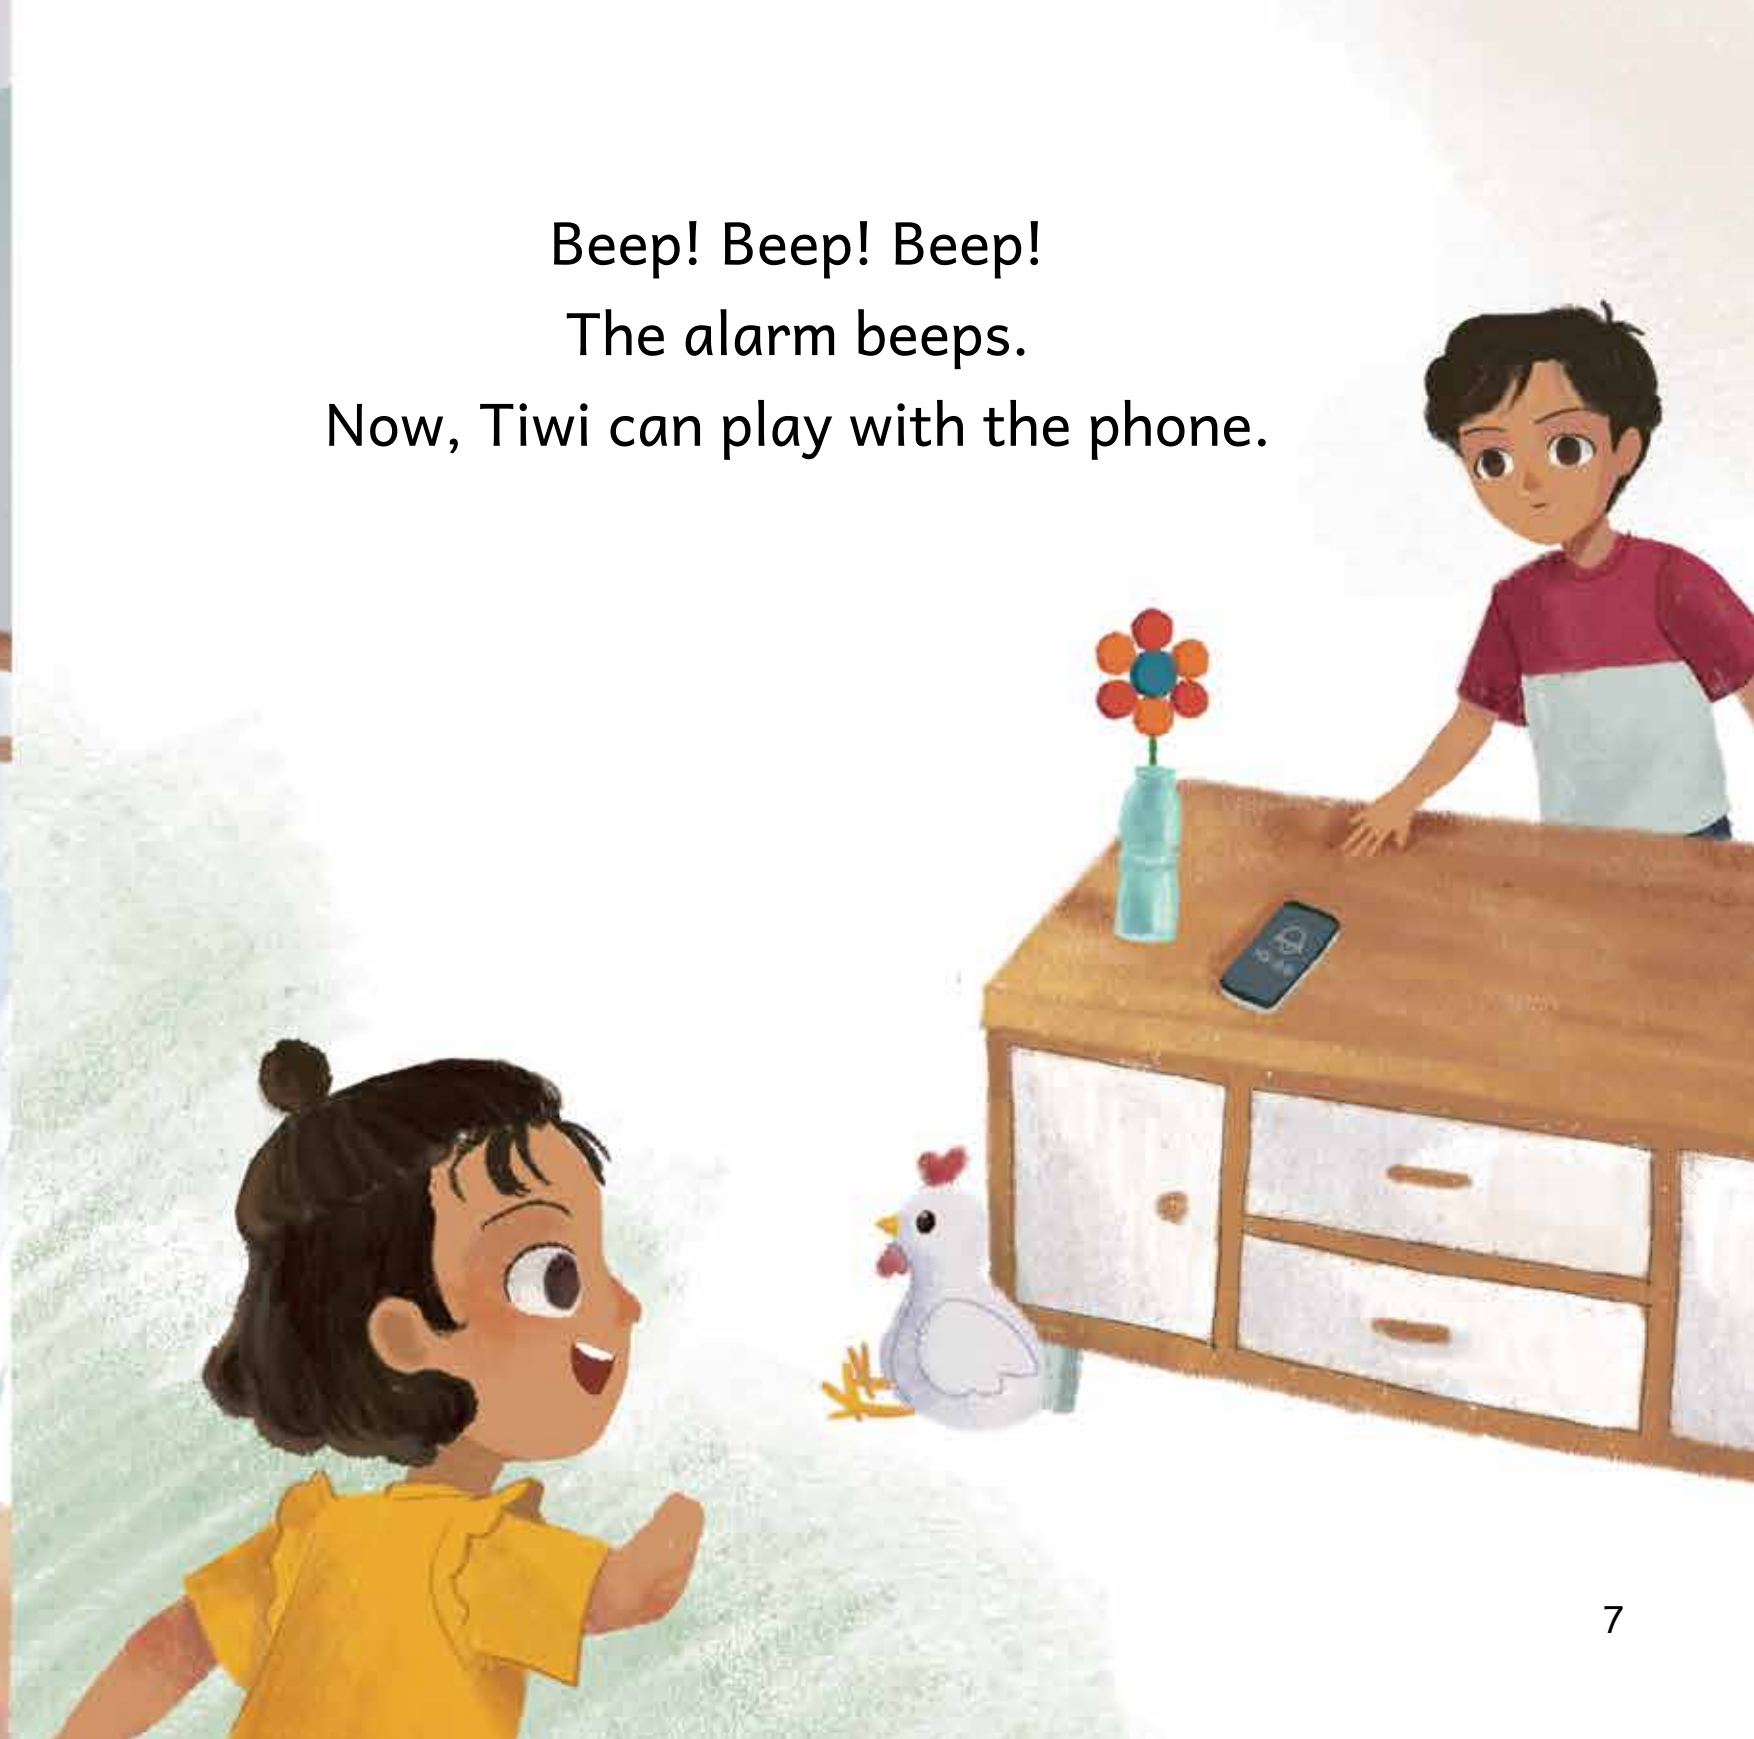

It's raining harder!
The electricity is out, too.
Tiwi decides to play with the blocks.

Beep! Beep! Beep!
The alarm beeps.
Now, Tiwi can play with the phone.

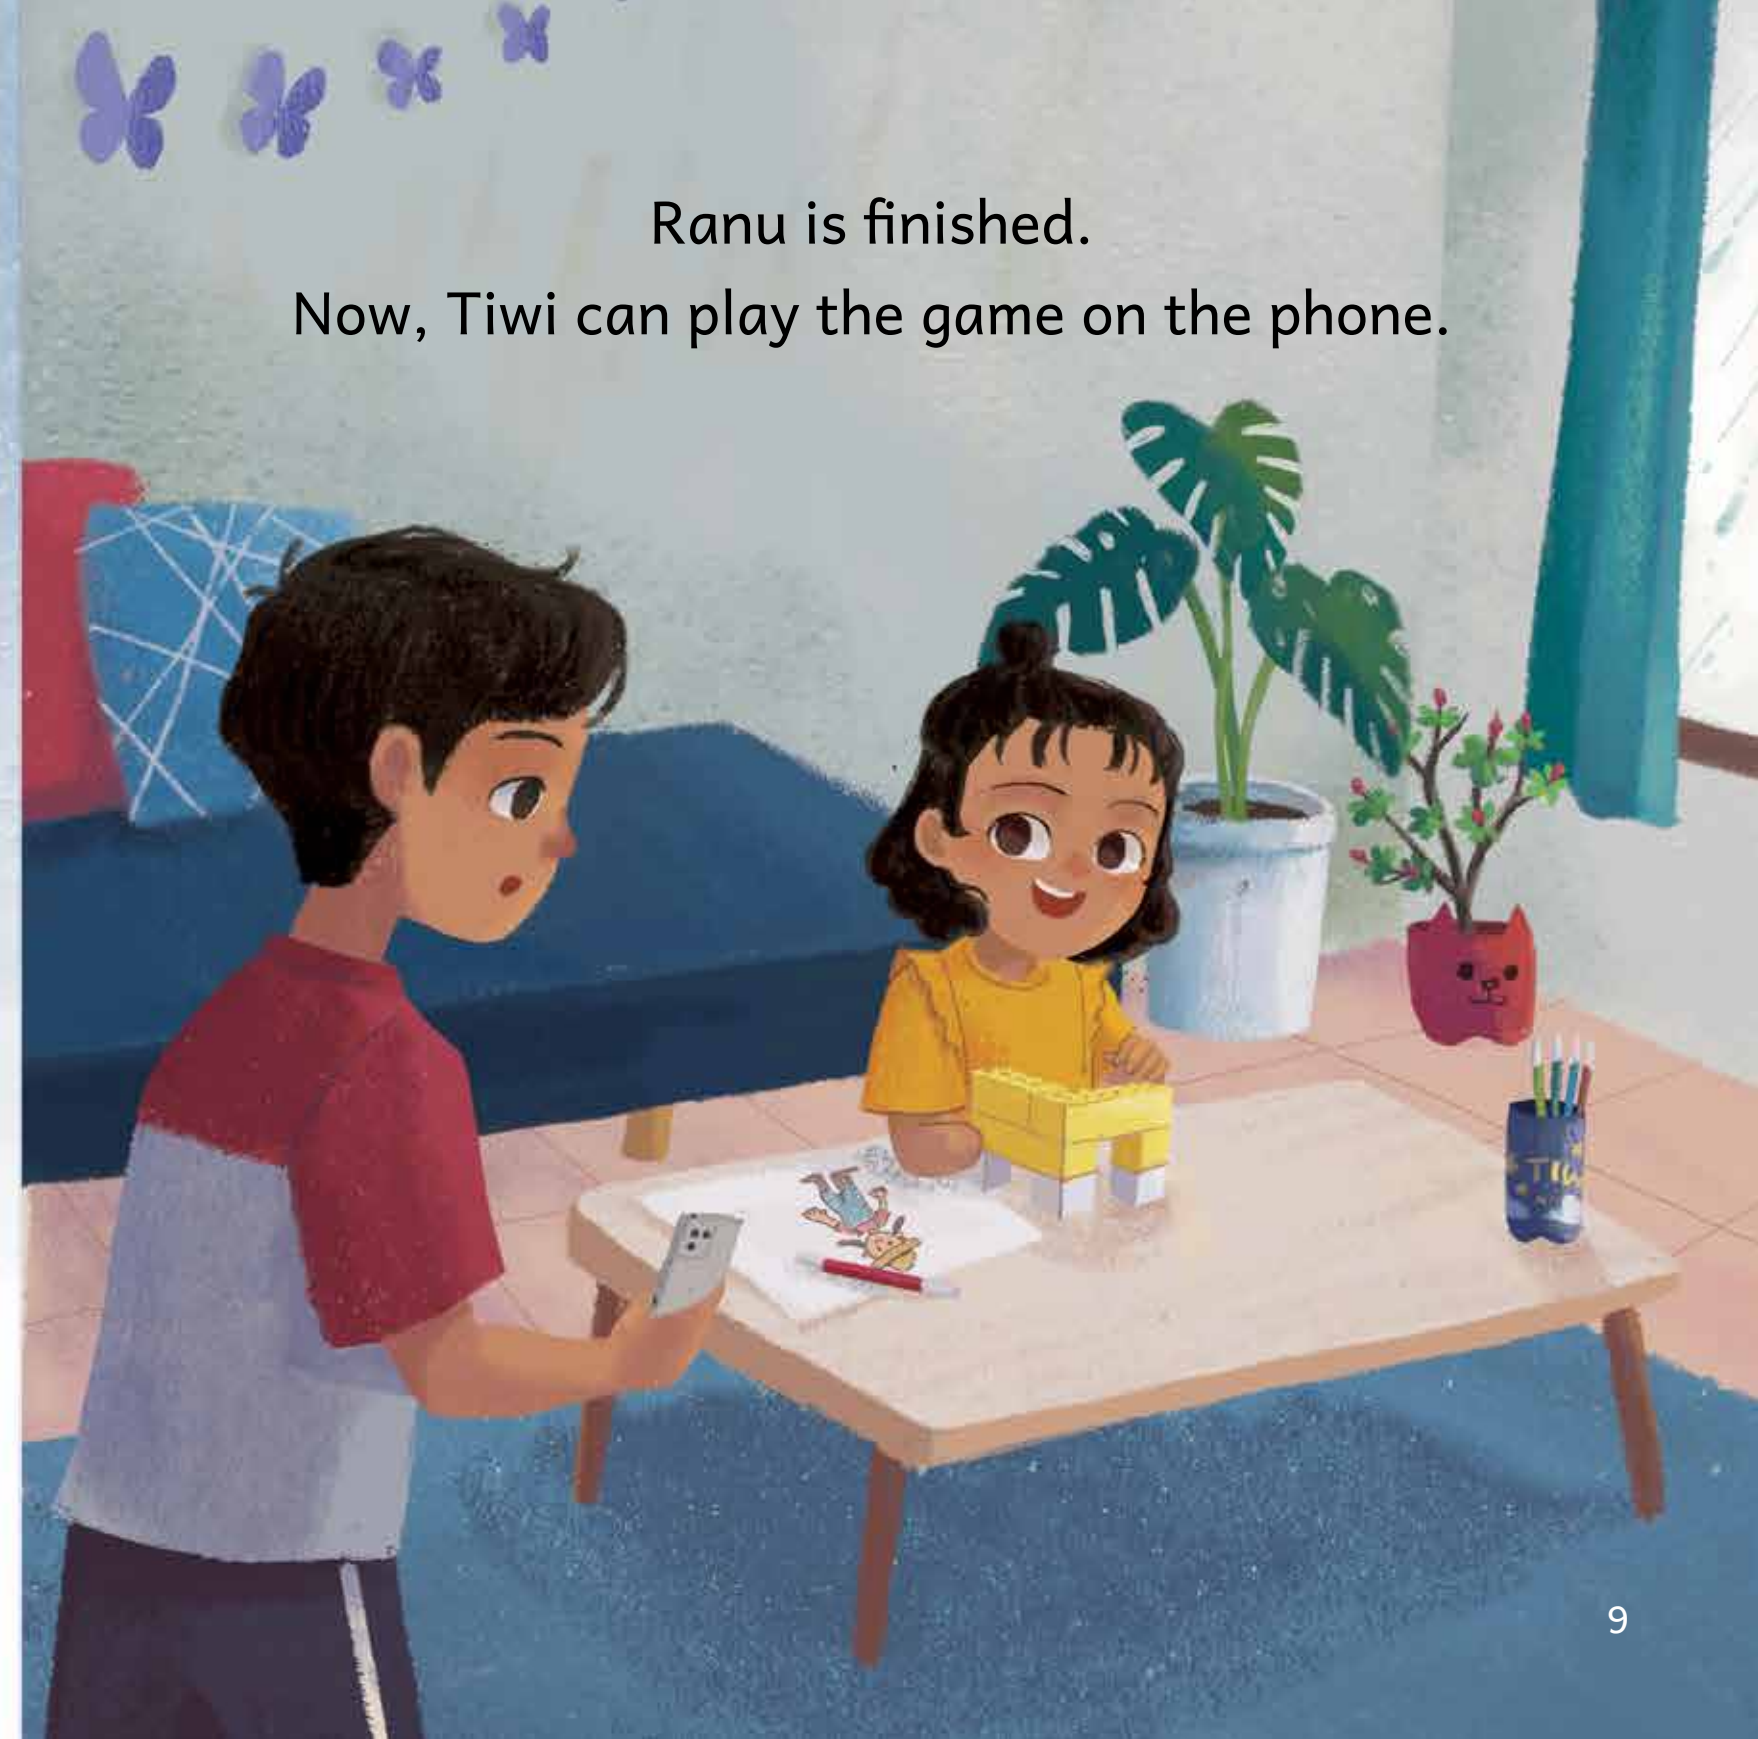

Ugh, Ranu, her brother, is using mom's phone.
He needs to finish his school assignment.
Tiwi has to wait some more.

Ranu is finished.
Now, Tiwi can play the game on the phone.

Yay! Tiwi has new plants!

Suddenly ...
Beep! Beep!
Oh, no!
The phone's battery is running out.

Tiwi can no longer play the game.
What will she do next?

THUMP!

Moci bumps into a plastic plant pot.
The pebbles inside it are scattered.

Tiwi has to tidy up the room.

She goes back to her blocks.
Hmm, what will she build?
A castle or a house?

Oh, she builds a house like the one in the Great Harvest!
Tiwi can add roads and trees.

What if Tiwi uses
the plastic flower?
Hmm, it's too big.

Tiwi can make some trees.
She can also make harvest boxes.

She lines up the trees neatly.

But, something is missing.
Tiwi adds a farmer made of paper.

Pebbles can be used for the garden's border.
Wow! It looks like to the Great Harvest game.

The rain has stopped.

Tiwi doesn't notice.
She is so excited about her garden.
Tiwi's friends are coming over.
✦ They want to play a game together, but ...

Tiwi's game is more interesting!
They can make their own garden.
This is more exciting.

A Message to Our Readers

Hello readers!

What do you think about the story?
There are actually a lot of interesting things that you can do without electronic gadgets.
So, you might want to play with your electronic gadgets a bit less. Spending too much time on electronic gadgets may cause harm to your health.

Thank you for reading this book.
I hope it entertains you, as well as adds to your knowledge.

With warm regards,

Fajri and Reni
